

Rep. Peter Welch (D-Vt.) has led the charge in the House against the proposed compromise to extend the Bush-era tax cuts to the wealthiest Americans and balloon the deficit. Welch was joined by 53 of his House colleagues in sending a letter to Speaker Pelosi asking her to hold firm against the deal negotiated by the President. You can see the letter by clicking here . As the bill comes to the floor, Welch is working to fight it, saying it creates too few jobs and too much debt. Watch the live feed below:
